

SEC. 7. The Board of Commissioners may pass all ordinances which they deem necessary to the welfare, health and governance of the town, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of North Carolina and of the United States. Said ordinances shall be posted at the post-office and two other public places of the town, and except in cases of great emergency shall not go into effect until three days after they have been posted. All ordinances shall be numbered and recorded in the minutes of the board.

Ordinances, their passage and publication.

To be numbered and recorded.

SEC. 8. Said board shall prescribe what bonds shall be given by the Marshal, Clerk and Treasurer; Provided, that one person may be both Clerk and Treasurer. The Tax-collector shall give bond in double the value of the tax books to be placed in his hands for collection. Such bonds shall be payable to the State of North Carolina, shall provide for the faithful performance of the duties of the office, and shall be liable to the suit of any person, firm or corporation aggrieved by a breach of their terms. Said board shall be the sole judge of the sufficiency of such bonds, and such bonds shall not be void for want of form. Said board in its discretion may consolidate the office of Marshal and Tax-collector, but separate bonds shall be given for each office. No official of said town shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of his office until he shall have first duly sworn to support the Constitution of North Carolina and of the United States, and to faithfully discharge the duties of his office.

Bonds of officers.

Consolidation of offices of marshal and tax-collector.

SEC. 9. The Mayor shall have power to commit any offender who is sentenced to imprisonment by him for any misdemeanor or violation of a town ordinance or for contempt of the Mayor's court, or for failure to pay fines and costs, to the guard-house which the board may provide for, or to the common jail of the county of Robeson, and the sheriff or jailer shall receive such person and shall charge the same fees as in case of other prisoners. The Mayor shall have power to compel any person adjudged guilty by him of a violation of a town ordinance or of a failure to pay costs incurred in his court to work on the streets of the town for a period not exceeding thirty days in lieu of commitment to the guard-house or jail, and the Marshal is authorized to use a ball and chain when necessary upon any person sentenced to work upon the streets; Provided, that no female shall be sentenced to work on the streets.

Power of mayor to commit to jail or guard-house.

Duties and fees of sheriff or jailer.

Power of mayor to work person convicted on streets.

SEC. 9½. That it shall be unlawful for any person or company to manufacture any spirituous or malt liquors or to sell or in any manner, directly or indirectly, to receive any compensation for any spirituous or malt liquors, wines or cider, or any other intoxicating liquors within the corporate limits of said town of Parkton. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished upon conviction thereof by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding twelve months, or both.

Exception as to females. Misdemeanor to manufacture or sell intoxicating liquors

Penalty.